However, the encounter with the ladies triggers Christian's childhood memories and takes the viewer on a fever dream journey between reality and madness.

DIRECTORS STATEMENT

Goodnight Sweetheart“ explores the socially ignored perspective of female abuse. It tells the story of a young man who carries an inexplicable fear of women due to his childhood trauma. The short film portrays the psychological burden on a young man who has never dealt with his painful past and becomes the monster he had to create in his desperate situation.

The film raises the question of how we should deal with sexual trauma and criticizes society’s tendency to overlook and be complicit in such matters.
